| Q 10 | There has been some civil unrest in part of India. The government in order to curb the uprisings passed a law with the idea of preventive detention. With the new law in action many youths of that area were arrested and were put in prison. As the over all criminal justice system was same as inefficient, police was not able to prove the charges against many who were arrested. a lot of the undertrial prisoner were released but after a delay of 5- 6 years. A group of activist filed a writ petition in the Supreme Court of India under article 32 of the Constitution of India. Arrest mere on the ground of suspicion was argued as violation of Article 21 and was creating a discontent among other people from that area. The Government based their argument on the grounds of national threat and security. They were of the view that a strict law was required to curb the civil unrest. | 25 | CO3 | | | | |

| Q 11 | Since past few years many deaths were recorded due to lungs cancer which was caused by smoking. Some anti – tobacco campaign groups started a movement against smoking cigarette. Gradually the movement became very big. It was joined by lots of other people and the movement was widespread. Gradually a PIL was filed in the Supreme Court to put an absolute ban on sale and purchase of cigarette. The government argued that it is already highly regulated and an absolute ban will be violative of fundamental rights of people who are working in the industry. The anti – tobacco group highlighted the fact that the government is not ready to let go a huge amount of tax which they make out cigarette. While the arguments, the government also acknowledged their inefficiency and the fear that an absolute ban will lead to a parallel industry where the cigarette will be sold and people will smoke. Decide the case and give reason for your judgment | 25 | CO3 |

| Q 11 | Vihar is a state in a country whose constitution is same as India. It is a poor state. A large percentage of population of the state resides in villages. Agriculture is the primary occupation. Population in the cities is on rise. There has been a consistent migration of people from villages because there has been a decline in the agriculture income. Agriculture has adversely affected by the uncertain and scanty rainfall. Life in the cities are stressful. There has been a steep increase in the revenue of the state because of the sale of the alcohol. A large number of families across the various income groups are being victims of alcohol abuse by the male head of the families. Many cases for domestic violence under the influence of alcohol were reported to the police. In the light of these facts, the State government of Vihar passed a new law. The new law was an absolute ban on sell, consumption and possession of alcohol. | 25 | CO5 |
