Name:

Enrolment No:

UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM AND ENERGY STUDIES

End Semester Examination, December 2020

Course: Resolution of international trade disputes

Semester: IX

Program: BBA.LLB (Hons)International trade and investment law)

Time: 03 hrs.

Course Code: LLBL514 Max. Marks: 100

Instructions:

SECTION A
S. No.		Marks	CO
Q 1	What do you understand by arbitrability of disputes?	5	CO 1
Q. 2	Explain umbrella clause	5	CO 2
Q. 3	Explain BIT, MIT and regional associations	5	CO 2
Q. 4	What is NAFTA	5	CO 3
Q. 5	What is institutional arbitration?	5	CO 4
Q. 6	Briefly describe UNCITRAL.	5	CO 3
	SECTION B
Q. 1	How has the trump presidency affected international law and why is the US election of global importance?	10	CO 2
Q. 2	Expound upon the pros and cons among ad hoc and institutional arbitration.	10	CO 3
Q. 3	Expound upon the existing conventional mechanisms for resolving disputes pertaining to international trade. Comparatively analyze the merits and de-merits of ADR	10	CO 3
Q. 4	How has covid-19 affected the international economy so far and what according to you are the long term implications of the same going to be?	10	CO 3
Q. 5	Describe the permanent court of arbitration- its activities, scope and ambit.	10	CO 4
	SECTION-C	•
Q. 1	Statement of question (difficult) 20 marks 2 question x 10 marks each	20
A	Give an in-depth analysis of UNCITRAL and its work so far. In your opinion, has UNCITRAL been successful in harmonizing and modernizing the law of international trade through the adoption of legislative and non-legislative instruments?	10	CO 4
В	Keeping in mind recent developments and model India BIT, what according to you, is the future prospect, scope and viability of ADR for India.	10	CO 4