SECTION-C (2Qx10M=20 Marks)
Q 11	In Re: Vinay Chandra Mishra Case, The Supreme court said that contempt jurisdiction of the superior court is not based on law, but it is inherent in the court because it is a court of record. Thus, the power to contempt resides in the Supreme Court and High courts because they are deemed as a court of record by the constitution. With reference to this, analyze the exceptions laid down under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 in a case of Courts Contempt.	10	CO3
Q 12	An advocate is a citizen of India, if subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, a national of any other country may be admitted as an advocate on a state roll, if citizens of India, duly qualified, are permitted to practice law in that other country. Analyze the qualifications and disqualifications of an Advocate.	10	CO3
SECTION-D (2Qx25M=50 Marks)
Q 13	A daily newspaper named “Awaaz” published an article which attributed motives to Mr. Justice ‘X’ of the High Court of ‘Z’ that there was a connection between tender of Rs. 50 lacs granted to a firm by Public Works Department in which the Judge’s maternal uncle was a partner and the judgment in a service matter involving the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department wherein the matter was decided in favour of the latter by Mr. Justice ‘X’. It was also mentioned in the article that Mr. Justice ‘X’ was well aware about the tender having been granted to the firm of his maternal uncle. A criminal contempt proceeding was initiated against the editor of the newspaper wherein the High Court found no basis for the insinuation that there was any connection between the tender and the judgment in the service matter or that Mr. Justice ‘X’ knew or might have known about any tender having been granted to his maternal uncle’s firm. High Court found the editor guilty of criminal contempt and passed sentence to undergo imprisonment for a month and a fine of Rs. 1000. An appeal was preferred against this order before the Supreme Court of	25	CO 4
