I am a well-known singer in South India and the CEO of my entrepreneurial venture-Blue Elephant. In order to connect with my fans, I am active on social media platforms like Twitter and Facebook. I have close to 1 lakh followers on Twitter. Since January 2011, I have been facing criminal intimidation on twitter. A few individuals have threatened to kill, rape and assault me. There are aspersions cast on my character as well as a chronic stream of extremely vulgar references and innuendoes <http://www.judis.nic.in> even about my mother, patently false information that could pit groups against me, thereby endangering my life, has also been put out by trouble makers, Many of these tweets are in Tamil. I am pasting an english translation of a sample of the offensive tweets. Screen shots of these pages on twitter are attached with this complaint.

The same people gang up, with new Ids and have also been saying I am against Tamil, Tamil Tweeters and Tamil Bloggers and that I have also have taken up cudgels against srilankan tamils.

In addition to this online stalking and harassment on twitter, some of the offenders also target me in their blogs such as "rajanleaks" and <http://mantra3787.blogspot.com/> (the blog has been removed as of a week ago. Investigation will reveal that these cyber criminals have also been posting obscene comments about several VVIPs in chennai.

May I please request you to have your cyber crime cell investigate this complaint, nab the culprits and prosecute them under the Indian Penal Code, Information Technology Act, the Tamilnadu Prohibition of Harassment Of Women Act and other provisions of law.

Discuss the possibly remedies available to the singer in this case.
