Program: B. Plan.   Semester: III
Course: Settlement Geography   Maximum Marks: 100
Course Code: BPLC211   Duration: 3 Hours
No. of Pages: 01

Attempt All Questions

Section – A   Marks:4*5= 20

1. What does settlement geography describe about the human settlement?
2. Define Settlement morphology and enumerate the concerns of settlement morphology?
3. What are the major morphological factors of a city?
4. What is urban-rural continuum theory?
5. Define land use. Why land use mapping is important?

Section - B   Marks:4*10= 40

6. Which factors influence the pattern of a settlement? Explain.
7. Differentiate between site and situation of a human settlement?
8. What are the characteristics of rural-urban fringe? Elaborate.
9. Explain the advantages and disadvantages of different patterns of Urban Settlements

Section – C   Marks:2*20= 40
10. Classify the content of city image and explain each with example?
11. What is the need for study of Settlement Geography, elaborate by citing various researchers' views?

OR

12. According to Clawson, what are the characteristics of good land use Classifications?

UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM AND ENERGY STUDIES, UPES
End Semester Examination, December 2018

Program: B. Plan.   Semester: III
Course: Settlement Geography   Maximum Marks: 100
Course Code: BPLC211   Duration: 3 Hours
No. of Pages: 01

Attempt All Questions

Section – A

Marks:5*4= 20

1. For locating a new settlement, which important factors need attention?
2. Define a situation for a settlement along with its factors.
3. Differentiate between rural and urban settlements based on predominant activities.
4. What factors influence the type of rural settlements, briefly explain?
5. What distinct aspects as its constituent parts are produced by rural-urban fringe?

Section – B   Marks:4*10= 40

6. What do you mean by ranking of towns? What are the uses of such ranking in urban planning?
7. Classify urban perception and explain each perception?
8. Which factors influence the pattern of a settlement? Explain.
9. Which factors affecting land use/land cover, explain each factor?

Section – C   Marks:2*20= 40

10. Explain in detail the urban structure of the pre-industrial cities?
11. From the desiderata of a land use classification system enumerate ten (10) rules with explanation.

OR

12. Show the spatial and sectoral flow from smallest settlement to metropolitan city by diagram.